

Judge Hurt in

Accident

Hannaford Enterprise.—Judge of the County Court, Will H. Carleton and Mrs. Carleton while on their way by car to Fargo, had a serious accident on the road just south of Walum yesterday, which necessitated their return to Cooperstown. Mrs. Carleton was driving the car, and finding that she was getting a little too close to the edge of the road on the right side, started to turn back into the center of the road but went too far, and went over the grade on the other side of the road, and as a result the car turned over on its side. Neither Mr. and Mrs. Carleton, nor the lady who accompanied them, were injured at this time, but after Mr. Carleton had called the Hannaford garage wrecking car to the scene and when he was steadying the car while it was being hauled back onto the road, in some way got his foot under the running board with the result that his leg was broken between the knee and ankle. Carl Werner took Mr. Carleton to Cooperstown for dressing of his injury, and Mr. O. H. Stai later in the day took the car back to Cooperstown.
