

While playing football at the school house Thursday morning, George Councilman had the misfortune to receive a broken collar bone.