

Our popular station agent, E. A. Daniel, contracted a serious case of spring fever this week, and as a result the depot windows are cleaned and polished. Of course that means the storm windows have been removed and stored until another winter rolls round.