

Chas Ernst secured the contract of supplying our business men with their ice for the summer. He had it cut from the creek on the Robert Starr quarter four miles north of Sutton.