

Chas Ernst of Glenfield has had the ice house belonging to the meat shop here filled with the avowed intention of taking possession of it again March 1. There are also rumors of another shop being started this spring.