

In a Fargo daily the first of the week several ex-service men related their reactions to the news of the armistice agreement eleven years ago, Kenneth Fitch, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Starr being one of the number. Mr. Fitch was bugler in France and is now manager of the North Dakota American Legion band.