

Glenfield Items

On Thursday at Moorhead, Jens O. Larson and Addia E. Pierson were quietly married. The bride is the eldest daughter of P. A. Pierson and wife east of town and has grown to womanhood in our midst. The groom is the second son of Henrik Larson and wife south of town. He has been engaged in the garage business here the last seven years. Both young people have many friends who wish them a long life of wedded happiness.

On Tuesday evening the M. W. A. and R. N. A. lodges gave a farewell party to Joseph Dahl and wife, who will soon move to their new home at Litchville where Mr. Dahl has a position with the Farmers Elevator. The chief entertainment consisted of the costumes worn by a number of members of both lodges, several instrumental numbers were given by Miss Hendrickson, a reading by Mrs. Pat McNeil and a duet by Mesdames Loken and Vern Overbeck, after which some of the Woodmen furnished music for an hour dancing. Just before lunch, O. V. Skorheim on behalf of both lodges presented Mr. and Mrs. Dahl with two pieces of cut glass. After a response from Mr. Dahl lunch was served and the guests departed for their many homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dahl much success and happiness in their new home. There were about 80 present.

A number from here attended the fair at Cooperstown last week.

Thomas Bradford, Jennie Turner and Mack Patterson and wife of Courtenay were Sunday visitors here.

Wm. Turner and Gladys Ahrens of Fargo drove through here Monday, on their way to Minot to visit friends.

Miss Ellen Frederickson of Kensal and Mrs. Phil Koenig and children of Berglund, Ont. spent several days at the Lee Dunbar home.

Grace City and the local boys crossed bats here Sunday. The game was evenly contested throughout the score being 9 to 8 in favor of the visitors.

The girls team here went to the park north of Cooperstown Sunday and played indoor ball with the Sheyenne River girls. But as the score keeper lost her pencil and wasn't very good in mental arithmetic we won't mention the score but anyway the Sheyenne girls carried off the bacon.

Haakon Dybwad took first money in the trotting race at Brantford Thursday.

Clarence Logan and family and John Dyward and family went to Fargo Monday.

Charlotte Cole arrived from Granite Falls Friday for a week's visit with the home folks north of town.

James Jensen spent several days in Fargo last week.

Frank Papenfuss and family spent Sunday evening with Victor Walen's.

Vern Overbeck and family and Pearl Peters were Sunday visitors at the parental home of the latter north of town.

Little Miss Salisbury of Carrington is visiting at the J. E. McKinney home.

Mrs. Eva Hoggarth returned to her home at Hawley, Minnesota Monday, after spending two weeks with relatives here.

Millard and Daisy Brown of Grace City drove through here Saturday enroute to Cooperstown to meet their sister Ina who attends the Valley City Normal.

H. G. Brown shipped two cars of mixed stock from McHenry, loading one Saturday and one Tuesday.

B. H. Wagner and wife were Carrington callers Saturday.

J. O. Larson and wife arrived home the fore part of the week.

O. V. Skorheim and Miss Mona Sommerville of Sutton were Fargo visitors Saturday.

Mack Turner and wife visited at Joe Turner's near McHenry Sunday.

Robert Christ of Wimbledon was a week end guest at the L. M. Simenson home.

Ed Johnson and family and Miss Metz of Kensal visited A. W. Johnson's Sunday.

Ed Huntsberger and family of Sutton and Mrs. H. G. Brown and daughter Dorothy were Sunday visitors at the J. H. Overbeck home.

Yoke Moorhouse and family of Grace City visited at I. E. Brotherton's Sunday evening.

Gust Damrauw of Parshall was the guest of James Jensen's several days last week.

Wm. Thurlow and wife of McHenry were callers here Tuesday.

Mrs. Thos. Fallen and daughter Florence are spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Dahl.

Mr. Gulstad Sr. returned to his home at Baldwin Wisconsin the first of the week after visiting awhile with his son Adolph, west of town.

Mrs. Hendrickson and daughters. Anton Johnson, Elliott Lampert, A. I. Sharpe and family, Melvin Gulstad and his father attended a church conference near Cooperstown Sunday.

E. S. Berg and wife and Joe Dahl spent Sunday at Spiritwood lake.

P. A. Pierson and wife attended the Field Day at Brantford Thursday.

Visitors from Sutton this week were Claude Fallen and family, John Urban and wife, Geo. Allen and wife and Frank Olson.

Carl Johnson suffered a painful injury Saturday while trying to start the car. He caught his thumb in such a manner as to tear the nail out by the root.

J. H. Hutchinson and wife, Mrs. Fread and Anton Harby attended the chautauqua at Kensal Saturday.

Mr. Johnson and family of Mose were shopping here Monday.

Thomas Fallen and family and Mona Sommerville of Sutton, Byrd and Leo Posey of Courtenay attended the farewell party here Tuesday.

Farm loans made on short notice and satisfactory terms by the Citizens State Bank.