

Glenfield Items

B. Gustafson, Lewis Larson, Laura Anderson and Lottie Posey attended the play, Bridget from Bally Bay, put on at McHenry Friday evening by St. John's Dramatic club of Kensal. They were well pleased with the entertainment.

Ed and Art Anderson and their families were Sunday visitors at the Sollee home at Binford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson and M. Walen were Carrington visitors Saturday.

Henry Pitcher and family visited at the Wesley Thurlow home at Courtenay Sunday.

Mrs. A. H. Fadness is caring for the Holmen children during the absence of Mrs. Holmen.

Bert Urban and Miss Johnson of Cooperstown were at Red Willow lake Sunday.

Edward Olson and family were visitors at the Ed Johnson home Thursday.

H. G. Brown shipped a car of stock from here Saturday, and one from McHenry. He arrived home Tuesday and reports a fair market.

Zack Posey and family of Courtenay, Mrs. H. G. Brown and daughter Dorothy, Lottie Posey and Lewis Larson enjoyed a picnic at Red Willow Lake Sunday.

Robert Turner was a Sunday visitor at the Johnson home at Sheyenne.

B. Gustafson and Laura Anderson visited the Edward Olson home east of town Saturday evening.

Herman Saint and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter at their home Sunday. Mother and child doing nicely.

J. H. Overbeck and wife were Sunday visitors at the home of their son Vern south of town.

Miss Esther Berg and a lady friend of Cooperstown called at the E. S. Berg home Monday.

Lucille Hennings is visiting at the home of her uncle Merl Thompson at Brantford.

P. McNeil and family and Ray Olson and family enjoyed a picnic at Lake Juanita Sunday.

John Hoffman arrived home Wednesday from Fargo. Dr. Darrow found him suffering from a broken bone, but as he had been running around several weeks since his injuries, the Dr. had a brace made to hold the bone in place and sent him home to look after his farm work.

A large crowd listened to the splendid sermon by Rev. McClure Sunday evening.

W. A. Hoggarth and family were Carrington visitors Tuesday.

Art and George Larson and Alice Renier were Carrington visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Nyberg are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at their home Sunday morning. Nurse Liddle of McHenry is caring for the mother and child.

Elizabeth Thompson arrived home from Valley City Thursday evening, and Friday she and Gene Daniel of Sutton drove to Fargo to attend the fair. They also took in the sights at Detroit and Shorcham, arriving home Sunday evening.

Noah Brewer and family of Urbana Illinois arrived Tuesday for an indefinite visit at the home of his step-brother, H. G. Brown.

The Lutheran Young People's Society was pleasantly entertained at the L. M. Simenson home Sunday evening.

I. E. Brotherton and wife and Mrs. John Johnson Jr. were Cooperstown visitors Monday.

Mrs. Thomas Fallen and son Edwin were callers here Saturday evening.

Jas. Jenson and wife had visitors from Parshall the fore part of the week.

W. A. Johnson and wife of Grace City spent the week end at the Anton Johnson home.

Lee Dunbar was on the sick list several days last week.

The two youngest children of Henry Walen are quite seriously ill with the cough that is going among children in this vicinity.

Famous Quartet To Sing Here

People of Sutton and vicinity will have an opportunity to enjoy a rare musical treat Sunday morning August 2nd at 10:30 when the College Quartet of St. Olaf College will sing in the Mabel Lutheran church under the auspices of that Congregation. An offering will be taken.

The four members of this quartet hail from as many different states. They are: Osgood Westley of Cooperstown, N. D., First Tenor; Obed Grinder of Mt. Horeb, Wisconsin, Second Tenor; O. Matthew Lyders of Ellsworth Iowa, Baritone; and Kenneth Onsgard of Houston, Minnesota Second Bass.

The four members of the quartet since their matriculation have also been members of the world-famous St. Olaf Lutheran Choir. This choir with its wonderful director needs no introduction to the music lovers of Sutton. Mr. Grinder and Mr. Lyders are tenor and baritone soloists, respectively of that unparalleled organization.

Radio fans have heard this quartet broadcast from WCCO the Gold Medal Station at Minneapolis, KFOA, the Seattle Times Station and WCAL the St. Olaf College Station. Mr. Onsgard is also known to radio fans as the chief announcer of the college studio. This position was awarded him by popular vote of the student body after a series of tryouts in which more than a score of students participated. Mr. Onsgard possesses a smooth bass voice. His clever remarks in limerick verse have been enjoyed throughout the United States and Canada.

Red Willow Lake

DANCE. Tuesday August 4 The Hotel Rudolph Orchestra. The best music at the popular price.

Sylvia Larson Dead

The community is saddened by the news that Miss Sylvia Larson passed away at her home Thursday evening after a short illness caused by a complication of ailments. She had been attending school in Valley City, but came home last Saturday, not feeling well, and on Sunday took to her bed from which she never arose.

Obituary published next week