

The six inch casing for the Glenfield well has been lowered and everything is set for what is hoped will be a speedy finish. The hole is now exactly 2850 feet in depth according to Mike Mogard.