

Work is progressing very slowly at the Glenfield well owing to the hard formation the drillers are in. It is impossible to make more than a few inches a day as there is so much time lost sharpening tools.