

The rotary drill at the test well was reported in operation Thursday. Work will go on day and night as long as it is in use.