

Kenneth Byington handed the Reporter a clipping from a Billings Montana paper where his brother Chester is located containing an account of a former Griggs county school teacher, George Graff who was recently elected to the Montana house of representatives. Mr. Graff taught the Erlandson school about 25 years ago and is remembered by many around Sutton who were his pupils. Kenneth met Mr. Graff while visiting at Billings last summer.