

The ladies of the community assembled Monday at the home of Mrs. W. F. Rassman to give a farewell party in honor of Mrs. J. E. Olmsted, who, with her family are leaving this week for their old home at Robsart Sask. As a mark of their esteem and good wishes she was presented with a camp stove which they will use on their trip. The family made many friends while living here who will miss them after they are gone.