

S. Rise will assume his new duties as regular mail carrier next Monday, relieving Wm. Sutton, who has been temporary carrier the past thirteen months. Mr. Sutton's services during that period have been entirely satisfactory to the patrons of the route and to the postmaster as well.