

Ole Selden has quit working and the blacksmith shop has been rented to G. M. Paulson, formerly of Glenfield. The family has moved into the house formerly occupied by Arnold Anderson's who are now on the T. A. Wills farm for the winter.