

Harold Sigstad was kicked on the forehead Sunday night by one of John Christianson's horses, the wound being so severe that it had to be given surgical attention. Dr. Westley was called out from Coopers-town to attend to it.