

Sam Simenson had a close call from having his farm buildings and property destroyed by a prairie fire last Sunday afternoon. The timely assistance of the neighbors and efficient work of his tractor and plows relieved the situation however.