

Louis Winter's car and a coupe driven by a son of August Kurtti, ran together Saturday night at Martin McWethy's corner. One front wheel was torn completely off of Mr. Winter's car and the frame was damaged. A wheel on the coupe was also bent on the axle. None of the occupants were injured.