

---

The population of Griggs county according to the latest census figures is 6,014—a gain of 540. This is a good gain considering the exodus to Montana, Canada and other western points, and is a substantial gain which promises much for the future of the county.