

Urban-Fallen

Last Friday afternoon, Claude W. Fallen and Miss Berga Urban hied themselves away to the city of Moorhead, where, on the following day they were joined in marriage, being accompanied on the trip by Carl W. Lien and Miss Maitie Fallen.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Urban, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fallen, both parties having spent all their lives in this community, where they have many friends among the younger set.

They will make their home in Sutton as Mr. Fallen is manager of the Minnekota elevator, but for the present will live with the bride's parents until they can secure a house for themselves.
