

Last Friday night a party was given at the Frydenberg home by the local Legion boys in honor of their comrade, Oscar Frydenberg and his bride. About fifty young people were present and the entire night was spent dancing to the merry strains of music. The other feature of the occasion was, of course, a nice supper. All pronounce the party a great success in every respect.