

W. A. Adams has closed his mill for the winter and has gone to Cooperstown to remain until after the holidays. He will then go to Kansas City Missouri to attend a tractor school until spring.