

Paul Black, who has been very sick this spring, is reported to be gradually recovering. The malady with which he has been afflicted is one that is generally pronounced fatal and the number of recoveries is very limited. He has been under Dr. Lewis' care during his sickness.