

J. S. Byington had the misfortune to lose one of his horses Monday morning. The animal became sick one day last week after he had reached the school house with the bus, and could not be gotten home. Dr. Winsloe was called from Coopers-town, but no relief could be given.