

The Canada fever is attacking a good many of our people. Canada may be all right, but we are going to stick close to little old Uncle Sam until the war is over.