

The district meeting of I. O. O. F. lodges comprising Dazey, Binford and Sutton was held here Monday night and was attended by a total of 100 Odd Fellows from the three lodges and from other points. After the regular lodge meeting, the home team conferred the initiatory degree on two candidates, Chris Rood and Robert Cunningham. Then the Dazey team took them in charge and gave the second degree, after which the brothers went to the Viking hotel and partook of a three course supper served by the Sutton aid society. Supper over, everybody, the ladies included, went to the hall, where they listened to a number of speeches. The first was by Dr. Ringlee of Binford, "Origin and meaning of the word Odd Fellow," the next by Rev. Philips of Dazey on "Fraternity". Then W. A. Adams spoke for Sutton on "The Three Links" and L. P. Larson on "Odd Fellowship, What is it?" Following these Past Grand Master, W. E. Byerly of Fargo addressed the audience, and the closing speech was made by Grand Master Andrew Robbie of Cavalier. The remainder of the night was then devoted to conferring the second and third degrees by Sutton and Binford respectively.
