

Hannaford Enterprise: Lieut.

J. Earl Fladeland, who has given exhibition flights with his machine at the county fair and on other occasions, took a bad fall with a machine a few weeks ago. He was flying in Oklahoma when a main wire broke and let his machine go wild. Following the accident he was in a hospital for some time, but has recovered and is now on his way to Mexico via the air route.