

Last Friday evening the young folks from O. Feske's had a little mishap while going home from the dance. The steering apparatus on their car became loosened and before it could be stopped, became unmanageable and turned over. Miss Agnes Frydenberg, who was with them received some slight injuries to one arm, but aside from that no harm was done.