

Louis Hafner is home from St Paul, where he had an examination of his knee made. He was given a great deal of encouragement and informed that in due season his leg would be all right.