

Oscar F. Hoff did not hold his public sale Saturday, having disposed of practically all of his goods before that day. He is severing his connection with the Farmers Bank and will leave shortly for White Hall Wisconsin to make his future home where he can be near his children. O. B. Hoff is his successor in the bank.