

Wm. Howden was taken seriously ill with congestion of the lungs last Friday, and has since been in a bad shape. His son Richard came up from St. Paul Tuesday to assist in caring for him. Since setting up the above his condition has taken a turn for the better and the prospects for a speedy recovery are very favorable. A nurse from Minneapolis arrived Wednesday and is now caring for him.