

C E. Kjelson received a letter from his son Lester, who is attending school at Napoleon, stating the school there is closed on account of flu and diphtheria. Lester is progressing well with his studies and will graduate from the high school this year.