

And now for the city beautiful. A. J. Melgard has placed an order for 300 shade trees to be planted in Sutton. This is something fine. If they are properly taken care of and suitable regulations concerning stock running at large are enacted, we will in a few years have something to be proud of.