

Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melgard were returning from Cooperstown they had some furniture tied on the back of the seat, the furniture caught fire from the exhaust pipe. While Mr. Melgard tried to put out the fire and save the furniture he got his hands badly burnt and the cushion of the seat and blowed up one tire—Grace City Gazette.