

While cranking a gas engine last Thursday, C. W. Nicoll had the misfortune to get the fingers of his left hand caught in the gears, causing the flesh to be torn quite severely. He went to Grace City Friday, and again Monday, to have the wound treated by the doctor there.