

Rebekah Lodge

Instituted

Wednesday afternoon of this week, Crocus Lodge No. 122, Daughters of Rebekah, was instituted with a charter list of twelve members, consisting in part of former Rebekahs.

The work of instituting the lodge, installing officers etc. was performed by Mrs. Jeannette Forkner of Langdon, president of the North Dakota Rebekah Assembly of North Dakota.

After the completion of this work and supper was had, the newly instituted lodge held their first meeting in the hall, their chief business being the reading of applications and balloting on nine candidates, who, after this routine, were given the Rebekah degree by the Binford team. The Binford ladies performed their work in approved style, and those who witnessed it were greatly pleased with the manner in which it was given.

When the insitiatory program was completed and lodge closed the entire company went to the rooms above A. J. Melgard's, where a supper was waiting to be duly disposed of. It had been the intention to have a number of speeches at this time but as the night was well spent it was thought best to dispense with this part of the program.

The following is a list of those who now are members of the newly instituted lodge: Nettie and Myrtle McWethy, Lena Melgard, Anna Linse, Marie Starr, Ella, Berga, Matie and Bessie Fallen, Nettie Davidson, Violet Taylor, Edna and Vanetta Kingsley, Iva Mayor, Hulda Holton, Cora Schmidt, Ida Hoff, Clara Bergstad, Cloe Marrs, Clyde Wells and W. A. Adams

The officers elected to serve until January 1, 1923 are: Noble Grand, Cloe Marrs; vice grand, Violet Taylor; secretary, Ida Hoff; treasurer, Marie Starr; warden, Anna Linse; conductor, Lena Melgard; chaplin, Nettie McWethy, R. S. N. G., Ella Fal-len; L. S. N. G., Bessie Fallen; R. S. V. G. Hulda Holton; L. S. V. G. Edna Kingsley, inside guardian Nettie Davidson, out-side guardian, Berga Fallen