

The little four year old son of Wm. Westerhousen's was stricken down with an attack of appendicitis a few days ago, and Tuesday evening Dr. Lewis took him to Fargo for an operation. His mother, who has been at her home in Wisconsin, was advised by wire to meet them in Fargo so she could be with her son.