A short time ago Frank Urban canvassed the community for subscriptions to purchase a memorial tablet in honor of the boys who were in Uncle Sam's employ for various periods of time during the recent war. This tablet which is now on display in the postoffice, is of bronze,  $13\frac{1}{2} \times 20\frac{1}{2}$  and contains 35 names. Of this number four are not living now having been killed in action, died in camp or otherwise deceased. They are Robert Lyle, Roy Lee, Elmer Rule and Harold Mayer.
