
The body of Eric Nystrom, who disappeared from Roseau about two months ago, has been found. Two boys while out hunting last week stumbled over the body in the woods about a mile from Roseau. The dead man's hands were folded under his head, and a revolver was laid across his hands. This was undoubtedly done to create the impression that the old man had killed himself, but the position of the revolver and the other circumstances does not carry out this idea. When last seen the old man had a ticket to Europe and $70 and was in good spirits over his proposed trip to the old country.
