

THE JOOS-HOHMANN WEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. William Joos to Miss Lily Hohmann was consummated at the home of the bride's parents in this city at 8 o'clock last Thursday evening, Rev. Rauch performing the nuptial ceremonies. The young couple were both born and raised in this locality and always have been classed with the best and most respected young people. The bride is a very estimable and talented young lady and Mr. Joos who was a successful teacher in this county for a number of years, is now a prominent merchant of Wimbledon, N. D., where the happy couple will make their future home. That their pathway through life will be beautified by the rarest flowers of perennial freshness and that they will ever be touched with sweet lips of prosperity and happiness, is the greeting of their many admiring friends in which the Leader heartily joins.—Arcadia (Wis.) Leader.
