

HYMNICAL

The marriage of Miss Ida M. Swartwout to James Murdoch, took place at high noon, yesterday at the beautiful residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Swartwout. The wedding service was performed by Rev. Cheesman, of Courtenay, in the presence of only relatives of the contracting parties. The union of these young people is the culmination of a long acquaintance. The bride and groom are well known here and are among our most popular young people. The bride is a daughter of D. R. Swartwout, one of our substantial business men, and is a young lady of many accomplishments and graces, and is well fitted to preside over the home of her chosen husband. Mr. Murdoch is in charge of the Osborn McMillen elevator at this place, and is a successful business man. The happy couple will continue to reside in Wimbledon. The News joins their hosts of friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.
