

A serious and well nigh fatal accident happened to the fourteen year old son of C. J. Croonquist, living six miles north of Kensal, last Saturday. The boy was riding in a buggy carrying a loaded gun. The gun was in some manner discharged and the loads from both barrels entered the boy's shoulder causing a frightful wound. He is under Dr. Wanner's care and is doing nicely.