

Dover Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Baum spent several days in camping at Spirit-wood lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Arther Robison were guests of Mr and Mrs Kribbs on the 14th.

Geraldine and Hale Berlin are on the sick list.

The Dover Union S. S. will observe Children's Day on the 25th.

A number of the Dover people attended Childrens Day in Courtenay and were much pleased with the service. Courtenay gives her visitors a royal welcome and is fast comming to the front in the line of hospitality.

Mrs. Raynolds was the guest of her niece Miss Laura, and of Mrs. C. M. Kribbs, one day last week.

Mrs. Noah Jarvis and Miss. Glendenning were guests of Mrs. Joel Baum on the 13th.

Miss Maud Berlin was visiting at George Darkenwald's several days last week.

Mr, James and wife and Jerome Shaner and wife attended church services here on the 11th.

Mrs. D. B. Berlin and daughters were guests at the beautiful home of Chas. A. Sanford, in Courtenay, recently. Mrs. Sanford has in her possession a rare collection of interesting souvinirs. Among others are peices of a wedding dress brought over in the Mayflower which landed in Plymouth, Mass. in 1620, worn and handed down in a Puritan family from generation to generation, the grandmother of Mrs. Sanford being the last to wear it, it is invaluable to her as a relic of her historical ancestors.

The new house on the White and Baum farm will soon be completed.
