

DOVER ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Merson left for their home in St. Paul, Sunday evening, after a week's visit with the family of Joel Baum.

Mrs. Chas. Sanford, Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. John Bradford were guests of Mrs. C. M. Cribbs on the 23d.

Herman Hemp and Eugene Murdock each purchased a threshing outfit. Gasoline engines seem to take the lead this fall.

Rev. Cavin was calling on the Dover people last Saturday.

Threshers are at work on the White and Baum farm.

Mrs. D. B. Berlin has about recovered from her recent throat trouble.

D. B. Berlin and Edward Zeigler drove to the Shyenne river on the 29th.