

Correspondence

Dover Items

On Saturday Sept. the 24th. The Rev. S. E. Ryan will hold the Quarterly conference at the Dover school-house in the after-noon at 4 o'clock and also preach in the evening. On the following Sunday he will hold service at 11. in the morning Love-feast at 10 o'clock.

Preaching at 11

The friends of Dover extend a hearty welcome to the people of Wimbledon to attend these services.

Look for Clendenings advertisement.

Big Cut in Prices of fine footwear at Clendenings.

Miss Etta Miller daughter of Silas Miller arrived in Dover on the 17th inst. from Canada, and will make this her future home. Dover extends a most cordial welcome to her.

Miss Hattie Jackson is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Henry Wilson.

Miss Edith Jarvis is keeping house for her father on his farm six miles south of Wimbledon.

Miss Ida Swartwout is in Dover spending the week with Mrs. S. Miller.

Henry Wilson and wife are happy over the arrival of a son at their home on the 20th inst.

Miss Florence Berlin drove to Leal last Friday returning on Sunday morning.

Miss Florence Berlin called at Nickolas Flagler's one day this week.

Edward Murry was in Dover last Sunday visiting at D. B. Berlin's.

Miss Jennie Christianson has been sewing at Nickolas Flagler's the past week. Mrs. Flagler expects soon to leave for her former home in Pough Keepsie, N. Y.

Miss Stedge's school closes this week.

Albert Nutt, B. E. Berlin, Silas Miller and Orlow Wellman are threshing this week.

Mrs. Chas. White and Mrs. Clendening were visiting Mrs. B. E. Berlin and other friends on Wednesday.