
U. S. MARSHALL HAGGERT DEAD.

The wide acquaintance and many friends of John Haggert, United States Marshall of this district, were shocked to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Fargo Wednesday morning from heart failure. He was one of the pioneer settlers in North Dakota and was always prominent in social and public affairs of Fargo and Cass county. He filed on the first tract of government land in what is now the state of North Dakota. He was the first Mason initiated into the order in North Dakota and which order will have charge of the funeral service to be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

His estate is estimated to be worth $175,000 and he carried $25,000 life insurance.
