Laid to Rest.

Thursday morning occurred the death of Mrs. J. A. Horner at her home in Wimbledon, after an illness of six weeks from a complication of diseases. The deceased was one of Wimbledon's most highly respected citizens, a kind loving wife and mother and the bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their hour of affliction. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. M. Hewson officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery east of town.

Lydia Cordelia Daman was born in Ohio county, Ky., June 18, 1851. She came to South Dakota in 1866; was married to James A. Horner May 12, 1869. She came to North Dakota in 1900 where she has since resided. Her father was a Methodist preacher and she had been a faithful member of the Methodist church since the age of 14 years. Besides a loving husband she leaves two sons, William and James G. Horner, to mourn her loss.
