

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Memorial services for Mable, Rosa and Linnie Rudler and the little Olson girl were held at the Methodist church last Sunday by Rev. Cavin, Rev. Roberts of the Congregational church assisting. The pastor related many affecting incidents of the last illness of the Rudler children, all of whom were faithful and consistent Christians. The text was unconsciously suggested by Linnie shortly before her death. When her own heart must have been weighted down with sorrow at the loss of her two sisters, she one day scribbled these words on a torn scrap of brown paper: "I love Jesus. Jesus is our refuge in time of trouble. He is also able to bind up our broken hearts." The recital brought tears to the eyes of many. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in time of trouble;" Psalms 46:1, and "He hath sent me to bind up the broken hearted;" Is. 61:1, were two passages making an appropriate text. "Looking This Way," one of those beautiful "Songs of Redemption," was sung by Mrs. E. H. Wright and Mr. James Murdoch.
