

A reception was given Rev. and Mrs. Georgi Wednesday evening at Academy hall, where a large number were present to meet and welcome the new pastor and bride. The room was beautifully decorated and delicious refreshments were served. The local orchestra entertained with a number of selections and all in all it was a very enjoyable affair.

---