

Kilmer-Buckley Nuptials.

Yesterday evening at eight o'clock, occurred the marriage of Fred Kilmer and Agnes Buckley. The wedding was a quiet one, the only guests being Geo. and Miss Ida Kilmer, brother and sister of the groom, and Mrs. Buckley, the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hewson, at the parsonage. The bride was attired in white, while the groom wore the conventional black.

Both young people are well and favorably known in Wimbledon and the surrounding country and each is to be congratulated. Mr. Kilmer has been for several years and still is, the popular proprietor of the local tonsorial parlors, while Miss Buckley, has, until recently, attended the city school.

The young people left on the east bound train last evening, amid showers of rice and old shoes, for a two week's visit in Wisconsin, when they will return to this city, where they will make their home.

We are glad to have new homes added to our city, and the NEWS joins their many friends in wishing Fred and his bride a long and happy life.
